

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that you currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call you as often as they want. Over an eighteen month period, that could translate to over 800,000,000 more unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents.

PLEASE DO NOT LET THIS HAPPEN. WE, RESIDENTS DESERE OUR PRIVACY. We work hard all day long, pay taxes, pay taxes, and more taxes, and have our families to take care of at home. We do not need someone we do not know interrupting our solitude at home. We need our rest at home if we are to continue to pay taxes. SILENCE IS GOLDEN!!!!
